Brain Injury Association of Massachusetts Announces Fall Educational Series
Workshops and Trainings for Professionals, Survivors and Family Members

The Brain Injury Association of Massachusetts (BIA-MA) will hold a series of workshops and trainings for professionals, survivors of brain injury and their family members during its fall Educational Series. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are being offered for professional programs.

Workshops include:

- September 16, 10 a.m.-12 noon, Best Western Royal Plaza, Marlboro, MA
  Phineas Gage: A guide to Mental Health & Brain Injury, a workshop for mental health professionals. (CEUs offered)

- October 6, 10 a.m. -12 noon, BIA-MA Office, Westborough, MA
  How You Are SMART: Using Your Strengths to Navigate Life After Brain Injury, a workshop for survivors.

- November 10, 3-5 p.m., BIA-MA Office, Westborough, MA
  Brain Injury 101: An introductory course for professionals, brain injury survivors and families. (CEUs offered)

“We are pleased to announce these opportunities that will educate and empower survivors, family members, and professionals,” says Nicole Godaire, BIA-MA’s manager of operations and education.

In addition, BIA-MA is offering Onsite Corporate Trainings. For more information and to register for any of the workshops and trainings, visit www.biama.org/trainings.html or email education@biama.org.

The Brain Injury Association of Massachusetts, a private, non-profit organization, provides support to brain injury survivors and their families, offers programs to prevent brain injuries, and educates the public on the risks and impact of brain injury. The association advocates for funding for individuals with brain injury, supports legislation to prevent brain injuries, and collaborates on educational campaigns with state agencies and related associations. BIA-MA is located at 30 Lyman Street, Suite 10, Westborough, MA 01581.
